IS GRANT THE COMING MAN? CORRESPONDENCE FROM THE PEOPLE-VIEWS OF THINKING ELECTORS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :prefer to have the present administration continue in power than to risk this or that candidate. Our glorious country is now on the right track this centennial year, and I hope, as you intimate, that Grant stands "behind the scenea." Yours for Grant, JERSEY CITY, June 12, 1876.

H. W. B., Jr.

ONE WHO CANNOT SEE, BUT IS READY TO DO.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-I cannot see the good you expect to do the republi-can party by printing "Behind the Scenes" in to-day's paper. This third term cry is all nonsense. If nominated, however, I shall work and vote for U. S. Grant up to the closing of the polls next November. As for the other candidates I think they are a baker's dozen of nonentities.

A BALLY FROM THE BOYS IN BLUE PROMISED. NEW YORK, June 12, 1876.

Your correspondent, "Behind the Scenes," in your issue of yesterday, strikes the nail on the head. The country is not tired of Grant. Let his name be placed on the banner of the republican party for 1876 and there will be a railying from the North, South, East and West of the "boys in blue." Who can doubt the result?

SAD FATE THREATENED A CONTEMPORARY. To THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—
What does "Behind the Scenes" mean to insinuate?
Has he lifted the curtain and revealed the coming man—the Great Unknown?

Dana's Sun would go under a cloud if Grant should get his third term.

SEVENTY-SIX.

A PERTINENT INQUIRY-WHO CAN DO IT? TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-

think, the underworkings of the pointies situation.

Grant can receive the nomination if he wants it. The colored delegates from the South will go for Grant to a man. The Convention is in heart for Grant, and let his name be proposed and who can "turn the tide?".

A BLAINE DELEGATION WHICH MAY SUPPORT

SPRINGPIELD, June 8, 1876.
The delegates to the Cincipnati Convention have most of them been interrogated by your correspondent as to their first, second and third choice for the Presidency. It was impracticable in a number of cases to constituents or some one who claimed to have knowledge of their preferences furnished the information. It should be added, however, that some of the delegates themselves are quite undecided as to second and third choice. DELEGATES AT LARGE.

Dr. Joseph Robbins, of Quincy, physician—I am for Blaine, first of all. If his nomination cannot be effected, my second choice would be Wheeler, of New York, and though not very decided as to a third choice I think it would be Hayes or Hamilton Fish. Would never vote for Bristow.

ROBERT G. INGRESOLL, of Peorla, lawyer—I have very decided preference for Biaine as my first choice. Morton would be my second choice. I am undecided upon a third choice.

GREEN B. RAUM, of Golconds, lawyer-My prefor-ences are first for Blaine, second Morton and third Hayes; then Conking, if the others fail. FIRST DISTRICT.

SIDNET T. SMITH, lawyer—I am in favor of Bristow as my first choice. He is the man who should be nomias my first carries. He is the man was should be homi-nated. We want a candidate thoroughly identified with the work of reform, and honest administration of the government. It might not be politic to nominate Blaine at this time, in view of the charges preforred against him.
GEORGE M. BROGUE—I am most decidedly for Blaine speak definitely, but might say that it will be the Great Unknown, and he, in all probability, will prove Hon. E. B. Washburne.

S. K. Dow, hwyer—I formerly lived in Maine and was personally acquainted with Mr. Blaine. I think a good deal of him as a man of utility, and at present he is my first choice. My preference, however, will be a good deal guided by what will seem best for the interest of the republican party at Cincinnati, Governor Hayes might be my second choice, Washburne would JOHN A. MCARTHUR, Postmaster of Chicago

I can see no reason why we should divulge what the delegation proposes doing at Cincinnati. We were elected under a Blaine influence, and although not pledged to him there is every probability that the delegation will work in his behalf. As to the second shoice I am not prepared to say anything, not being fully determined.

It is understood that Mr. McArthur will favor Senator

Conkling as second choice.

At present I am for Blaine, but cannot tell what may result from the developments now pending before Congress. As to the second or third choice I have not yet made up my mind. I will be entirely guided by the sentiments of the other delegates when they are all assembled at Cincinnati.

C. B. Farwkii, dry goods merchant, of Chicago, and member of Congress—My personal preferences are decidedly in favor of William A. Wheeler, of New York. I have known him lor several years at Washington, where we boarded at the same hotel, and I, therefore, have had ample opportunity of Judging of his abilities and character. In accordance, however, with the sentiments of the Springfield Convention I shall vote on the Brst ballot for Mr. Blane. No instructions were given at our Convention, but there was an unmistaxable leaning toward the latter gentleman. If a Southern republican were nominated and a first class democrat I am iree to say that I would hesitate in my choice as to voting on election day. It take in my choice as to voting on election day. It take in my choice as to voting on election day. man. If a Southern republican were nominated and a first class democrat I am iree to say that I would heatistic in my choice as to voting on election day. It would be a mistake to nominate a Southern man. We see the effects of giving the South a full representation in Congress at the present time. Why, Considerate generals, some of whom ought to be in prison, control that body. If the democratic party should succeed in capturing the government all Southern claims for indemnity during the war would be rushed through and our national debt quadrupled. I tell you sir, this is the main issue of the present canvass. It is folly to suppose that the Southern people forget the injuries inflicted upon them by us at the North as results of the war. They hats us more cordially than ever. It is not in human nature to forget and gloss over such injuries. If a Southern man were elected President to-morrow be would naturally lean toward his kindred. Southers underning that the south does not care for the currency, the tariff or any other question. She only wants to get control of the wheels of legislation, that claims of this character may be paid over to her impoverabled catizons.

W. Coppin, a Baiavia banker—Although personally for Washburne, I shall, in deference to the views of the people who send me, support blaine first and do what I can to secure his nomination. Would be for Washburne next if a compromise can be made upon him. After that would be guited by circumstances, but could not support Morton or Conkling.

EDE AYJZE Harvard, capitalist and speculator—First choice. Blaine, and will stand by him. After Blaine would favor Morton and Hayes, but is not for Bristow.

ALBERT WALKER, Stillman's Valley, farmer—I am for Blaine, because the people are for him. Personally I would prefer conking, as I studied and practised law with him and know him thoroughly. But I shall vote first for Blaine, second for Conking. Am not decided as to a third choice.

R. L. Buncekte, Eric, merchant—Shall use my vote and influence first for Blaine, and if be cannot be nominated then for Washburne. For a third choice would be for Hayes or Wheeler. Personally I would be for Washburne first, but would obey the wishes of my constituents, who are for Blaine. I could not support Conking.

tow. I cannot speak now as to third choice, but shall await events."

William Prescort, hawyer—My preference is for Blaine, in accordance with the avowed sentiments of the people of my district. I don't know what will be the effect of the present charges made against that gentleman, but I am convinced that they are not sufficient to prevent his nom nation. As to the policy of nominating him under the circumstances, that is a matter the whole Convention will have to consider. Personally Blatne is my first choice. I am inclined to favor Morton as second choice.

C. R. COMMINGS, Pekin, merchant—My first choice for the Presidency is Blaine very decidedly. He is much the stroncest man. As second or third choice Morton or Conking would be satisfactory. I shall not favor any man from the other side of Mason and Dixon's line.

R. R. LATHAM, Lincoln, capitalist—My choice is first for Blaine, as he is the strongest with the people and my constituents prefer him. For second and third choice, in case Blaine should fail of nomination, I have no strong preference and should abide circumstances.

D. D EVANS. Danville, lawyer—I am for Blaine first of all, as he is almost the upanimous choice of my consutuents. I think I would go for Bristow as second choice, and probably Morton for the third. Have great admiration for Morton, and under some circumstances would prefer him.

T. J. Golden, Marshall, lawyer—I think as to availability my choice among Presidential candidates would be in the following order:—First, Blaine; second, Hayes; third, Morton; with Conkling and Bristow next, as to merit, they would stand—First, Morton; second, Blaine; third, Conking. I think highly of Bristow, and would like him to accept the Vice Presidency.

Benson Wood. Effingham, lawyer—The sentiment of our people is for Raine. I am for him first, as I think he is the strongest man. Personally would prefer Morton, but doubt his availability. Morton, however, would be my second choice, and layes third. Bristow has little strength among my constituents. Blaine—windication will cause a great accession to him.

General J. S. Martin, Salem, lawyer—Hisine is very decidedly my first choice and that of my district. I have a high regard for Morton, but think Wheeler, of New York, or Hayes, of Oho, as more available, and either would suit me as second choice, with Morton third. Should General Logan's name be prominently presented I would prefer him to all others.

Geologic. McCoon, Greenville, farmer—My preferences are: first, Blaine; second, Morton or Washburne; third, Hayes. Those expressions are contingent upon the condition that General Logan is not a candidate, whom I would prefer to any.

SENENKER, Alton, Judge of Alton City Court—My first choice is B. H. Bristow above all others. If be cannot be nominated then I should favor Washburne or Morton. Washburne will be my second choice if he is before the Convention. I am opposed to Blaine, and would prefer Conkling or Hayes to him.

General J. I. Rinaker, Carlinville, lawyer, is first for Blaine, then for Morton, and then for Conkling.

WISCONSIN. SENTIMENTS AND PREPERENCES OF THE DELEGA-TION TO CINCINNATE

MILWAUKER, June 7, 1876. The following is a report of the sent ments and pref-erences of the delegates from this State to the Cincinnati Convention :--

DELEGATES AT TARGE. PHILETUS SAWYER, Oshkosb-I am and always bave been for Blaine and believe the republicans of this State favor him to-day. Blaine is my first and only choice. I nover make a second choice till the first trade is off.
As long as there is a chance of nominating Blaime I As long as there is a chance of nominating Blaine I shall not disturb myself with speculations about a socond choice. Blaine, I believe, is generally regarded, and justly, as a persecuted man, and is now as a vindicated man. I have never lost faith in him. I believe the republican party is firmer for him to-day, in consequence of that persecution, than it would otherwise have been. I have nothing in my mind as to Morton, Bristow, Conkling, Washburne or the other candidates. I do not feel called upon to express any opinion as to them. If Blaine fails to obtain the nomination we shall try to find a fit man. If Blaine is nominated the republicans will carry this State. Indeed, I am not reporter's visit, and was not expected home before the delegation left the State for Cincinnati. Mr. Atwood is a strong Blaine man. He wrote the following to his

"As the time of the republican Convention ap proaches there is considerable interest excited on the subject of politics. The several candidates for the first nomination have warm irlends, who are pressing their what attentive conserver of events, and it does appear to us that Mr. Blaine has, by far, the greatest number of supporters with the masses of the people. Possibly this impression may exist from the fact that he is out individual preference for the nomination; but we think not. He is a recognized leader; a very able and bold man; full of energy, and ripe with experience in public affairs. Such a man is wanted at the head of the government at this time. The people have confidence in Blance, and I believe he would be the strongest candidate that could be named."

Mr. Atwood has not been heard, so far as I could learn, to express preference for any other person, or to say anything about second choice. He is understood to invor Bristow for Vice President, and to be a unit with the other members of the Wisconsin delegation is writingness to affects for an analysis of a stronger and better than Blance, if Blaine's nomination becomes clearly impossible.

Mask Douglas, State Senator, farmer and lumberman—My frat choice, always supposing he turns out all right, is Blaine. If he tails, as at present activised, I shall go for Bristow. I shall be guided by my own observation at Chicinnati, and cannot pleage myself absolutely to any one for either first or second choice. Conking is beginning to be taiked of, and seems to be gathering strength, but as I have not yet given any parsecular attention to any other candidate except Blaine I am not able to say anything further at present. us that Mr. Blaine has, by far, the greatest number of
